The Wm. A. Allison's Sons have long been known as producers of top cattle in Indiana. They have consistently sent their best products to the Indiana State Sale. The consignment for this sale is the best they have ever consigned. It features the get and the services of their outstanding junior herd sire, Browndale Guardsman, which they purchased at the top of the Jones-Robbins Sale in 1941. They are selling one bull sired by him, two heifers with calves at foot by him, and two heifers that will calve to his services. They are also selling two outstanding red bulls by Pathfinder's Salute, their red home-raised young son of Emblem's Pathfinder, and another very thick low-set red bull by the home-bred sire, Pathfinder's Rodney.

Guardsman's Pilot 2139195—Is the first son of Browndale Guardsman to be offered for sale. He is the oldest bull sired by Browndale Guardsman and he is almost an exact duplicate of his famous sire. There should be considerable competition for this very promising young herd bull prospect.

She has a dark red bull calf at foot, born June 10, 1943, and sired by Sultan Victor, a red son of the International Junior Champion, Kahn Sultan.
